

Happy Thanksgiving. We are thankful for our
PLCTA families and friends...

Dear Families and Friends:

I can't believe how fast time is moving. Seeing all the children in their Halloween costumes brought such joy to my heart. Fall is a wonderful season of making lasting memories with your family.

December 6th will be here before we know it. By now every family should have called for raffle tickets to sell. Also, auction tickets are now on sale. Please consider attending. Perfect date night. Invite your friends and family to join us. We are still collecting bottles for our "basket of cheer" and new items to raffle at our auction. If you have a gift that you are not going to use, Mary will find a place for it. I look forward to a great night together.

Congratulations to Louis Scarantino for planning and paying for his own vacation to Vegas to see Shania Twain. Shania brought Louis on stage while she sang three songs. He hopes it will encourage others to follow their dreams. Another shout out to Samantha Lugo who sold her first piece at First Friday on November 1st. Keep dreaming big!

Please check our flyer on details for November socials and our upcoming Holiday Parties and RSVP due dates.

From our home to yours. Wishing you all Thanksgiving Blessings.

Dear Family and Friends:

We give thee thanks Almighty God for all the many blessings you have bestowed upon us. This might be a prayer that you and your family might recite as you gather around the table to give thanks to God for all the blessings and graces that you have been given. As you sit down and give thanks and break bread together, let us remember and pray for those individuals who go without, who have no family, who are homeless and hungry during this time of year. The Gospel verse from St. Matthew 25:35 states: "I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in." As we gather as a family around the Thanksgiving table, may God rest your heart and mind, and may He bless and keep you and your family, and continue to extend His blessings upon our nation, guiding us one and all by His word.

To you and your family, a very Happy and Blessed Thanksgiving Day.

Michael
